

Best Student Essays Faculty Nomination Form Deadline: March 1, 2014

Directions: This form is to be filled out by a faculty nominator (any UNM faculty member or instructor). Once complete, the faculty nominator must email this form directly to bse@unm.edu, writing "Faculty Nomination" in the subject line. Faculty nomination forms must be received no later than March 1, 2014. Essays without corresponding faculty nomination forms received by the deadline will not be considered for publication. It is the student's responsibility to make sure all of his/her documents are submitted on time. Students may not submit faculty nomination forms; they must be submitted directly by the faculty nominator.

Faculty Nominator:

Faculty Nominator Email:

Department, Campus Address:

Title of essay being nominated:

Author of essay being nominated:

Did the student approach you asking for a nomination? Yes: No:

Do you strongly recommend this essay for publication? Yes: No:

In the space below, please briefly elaborate on the work's scholastic merit, analysis, presentation of topic, and/or any other traits that make this excellent student work worthy of publication. (Remarks regarding foreign language submissions must be in English.) We may publish these comments in the Spring 2014 issue.

Nominator's signature (a typed name is fine):

If you have any problems with this form, please contact us at bse@unm.edu.